

THE CASE

OF

Sir THOMAS WILLIAMS Baronet,

BEING

Burgess for Webley,

In Com. Hereford.

SIR Thomas Williams upon the 22 of April 1675. was Duly and Legally Chosen and Returned Burgess for the said Burrough, by the Majority of Qualified and Unquestionable Voices, to serve in the place of Sir Thomas Tomkins Knight, deceased; (viz.) by Fifty one, against Thirty eight, who onely Voted for William Gregory Esq; And the said Sir Thomas Williams hath been ever since a Sitting Member according to the said Return; And that Henry Williams Esq; who was then High-Sheriff of the said County, and made the said Return, is since dead, before he had made any Return of the Poll-Book to the Committee of Priviledges: Yet notwithstanding the said Election was by the said Sheriff managed with all fairness and indifferency, the said William Gregory doth endeavor to make Scruples and Interest to overthrow the same.

*To be heard on Saturday the 31 of March 1677.
at the Committee of Priviledges.*
